

Why? Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What? The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:

- Social Security number and transaction or loss history
- Credit history and account balances
- Income and retirement assets

How? All financial companies need to share customers' personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customers' personal information; the reasons Associated Banc-Corp chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

Who we are

Who is providing this notice?

Associated Banc-Corp and affiliated companies, including Associated Bank, N.A. and financial companies such as Kellogg Asset Management, LLC® and Associated Financial Group, LLC. See list below under other important information.

What we do

How does Associated Banc-Corp protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

How does Associated Banc-Corp collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- Open an account or give us your contact information
- Deposit money or provide your mortgage information
- Tell us about your investment or retirement portfolio

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.

What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else?

Your choices will apply to everyone on your account.
